

NP. Diego Cervieri

Notary Public, Universidad de la República (2011). Certified Advanced Studies in Intellectual Property, Universidad Austral (2020). Consultant specialized in trademark and patent issues. Specialist in new ways of combating counterfeiting and online monitoring. He was moderator of the panel discussion on Online Monitoring at INTA 2018, Seattle. Member of the INTA Internet Committee since 2019. Member of the Board of AIPF (Association of Industrial Property Firms).

He has been a speaker at several national training sessions on the identification of counterfeit products for Customs officers, National Police and members of the judicial system. Repeated speaker at the Annual Conference on Fraud and Counterfeiting, in Toronto, Canada, on topics such as new trends in enforcement and border measures. Courses and Seminars: "Understanding the New China", Universidad de Montevideo; "Combating Trademark Counterfeiting"; "Piracy by signal receivers"; "Combating the commercialization of counterfeit products and trademark offenses"; "International Seminar: Intellectual Property 2.0". Speaker at the AIPF Annual Meeting: "Management of a Trademark Practice in Times of Technological Development" - Chicago 2018. Languages: Spanish and English.